

Superlative adjectives

- 1 Complete the chart with the correct forms of the adjectives.

Adjective	Superlative
short	shortest
safe	1 _____
2 _____	the funniest
popular	3 _____
good	4 _____
clean	5 _____
6 _____	the nicest
bad	7 _____
interesting	8 _____
9 _____	the most boring

- 2 Complete the sentences with the superlative form of the adjectives.

This is the easiest exercise on this page. (easy)

- Mr. Stark is _____ teacher in the school. (nice)
- This is _____ café in the city. (popular)
- Brenda is _____ girl in the class. (clever)
- This is _____ restaurant in town. (expensive)
- That was _____ experience of my life! (embarrassing)

Comparative / superlative

- 3 Complete the sentences with the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjectives. Use than where necessary.

Jack is the tallest student in my class. (tall)

- Geography is _____ history. (interesting)
- I think that's _____ joke I know! (funny)
- This restaurant is _____ the one in the city centre. (cheap)
- I think math is _____ subject at school! (boring)
- My bedroom is usually _____ my brother's. (clean)

the least

- 4 Rewrite the sentences using the least and the adjectives in the box.

aggressive boring dangerous difficult expensive popular

Science is the most interesting subject at school.

Science is the least boring subject at school.

- Bikes are the cheapest method of transportation.

- Robert is the most unpopular boy in the class.

- The history exam was the easiest exam this year.

- Hamsters are the friendliest pets to have at home.

Got it?

- 5 Look at how these students are feeling today. Complete the sentences using the adjectives.

	happy	excited	nervous
Gemma	●●●	●●●	●●
Carl	●	●	●
Elliot	●●	●●	●●●

Elliot happier than Carl. (happy)

- Carl is _____ (happy)
- Gemma is _____ Elliot. (nervous)
- Gemma is _____ (excited)
- Elliot is _____ Carl. (excited)
- Gemma is _____ (happy)

- 6 Correct the mistakes in the sentences. One sentence is correct.

Matthew is ~~youngest~~ boy in our class.

the youngest

- A Ferrari is most expensive than a Ford.

- Do you think that money is the most important thing? _____
- Who is least nervous about the test?

- Spanish is one of the easiest languages to learn. _____