

Relative pronouns: who / which / that

Rewrite the sentences using that.

This is the man. He bought our house.

This is the man that bought our house.

1 I bought some new sneakers. They weren't expensive.

2 We stayed in an apartment. It was in Rio de Janeiro.

3 A dishwasher is a machine. It washes dishes.

4 LA Galaxy is a soccer team. It's very popular in the U.S.

5 Mrs. Rodriguez is a teacher. She works in our school.

2 Complete the sentences with who or which.

I'm in a class which has 30 students.

1 That's the car _____ cost $35,000!

2 A composer is a person _____ writes music.

3 A camel is an animal _____ lives in the desert.

4 That's the movie _____ won three Oscars.

5 Joe is the boy _____ helped me in class.

3 Choose the correct answers.

An airplane is a machine who / which flies in the air.

1 John Logie Baird was the inventor who / which invented the TV.

2 Tigers are animals who / which come from India.

3 Botticelli was the artist who / which painted the Birth of Venus.

4 An architect is a person who / which designs buildings.

5 James Watson and Francis Crick are the men who / which investigated DNA.

The infinitive of purpose

4 Put the words in the correct order.

clean / to / asked / Mom / me / bathroom / the
Mom asked me to clean the bathroom.

1 living room / the / I / to / went / watch / TV / to

2 restaurant / the / wear / Max / a / jacket / to / bought / to

3 store / buy / I / newspaper / went / a / to / the

5 Choose the correct answers.

I went into the kitchen to make / for to make a sandwich.

1 Yuki bought a book read / to read on the weekend.

2 They went to the supermarket for to do / to do the grocery shopping.

3 Larry wrote an e-mail to send / for send to Max.

Which one ... ? / Which ones ... ?

6 Choose the correct answers.

I have a red apple and a green apple. Which one / ones do you want?

1 Which pants do you like? I like the black one / ones.

2 There's a blue shirt and a white shirt. I like this one / ones.

3 Look at those cakes. I'd like the two chocolate one / ones.

7 Rewrite the bold sentences using one or ones.

These DVDs are cool. Which DVD is the adventure story?

Which one is the adventure story?

1 Listen to these songs. Which songs do you prefer?

2 Look at these paintings. Which paintings are by Picasso.

3 Both men are good tennis players. Which man is going to win?

4 I like the green sweater not the yellow sweater. Which sweater do you like?