

Student A

Ask Student B questions to find out information about these famous people.

A: Who was Aphra Behn?

B: She was a ... who ...

Aphra Behn Humphry Davy Mikhail Gorbachev
Roald Amundsen Tezuka Osamu Vivaldi

Use the information below to answer Student B's questions.

Christopher Marlowe was an English writer who knew Shakespeare.

Thomas Tallis was an English composer who lived in the 16th century.

Joseph Priestley was an English scientist who discovered oxygen.

Giovanna Garzoni was a female Italian artist who lived in Florence in the 17th century.

Lech Walesa was a Polish electrician who became a politician in the 1980s.

David Livingstone was a Scottish explorer who explored Africa in the 19th century.

Student B

Ask Student A questions to find out information about these famous people.

B: Who was Christopher Marlowe?

A: He was a ... who ...

Christopher Marlowe David Livingstone Giovanna Garzoni
Joseph Priestley Lech Walesa Thomas Tallis

Use the information below to answer Student A's questions.

Aphra Behn was a successful female writer who wrote plays in the 17th century.

Vivaldi was an Italian composer who lived in Venice in the 18th century.

Humphry Davy was an English scientist who discovered potassium and magnesium.

Tezuka Osamu was a Japanese artist who helped create manga cartoons.

Mikhail Gorbachev is a Russian politician who organized the end of communism in Russia.

Roald Amundsen was a Norwegian explorer who walked to the South Pole in the Antarctic in 1911.